Last night's "caustic causerie" by Mr. Karniel again brought news from the "Haifa Parliament" which has now moved from Gan Benyamin to a cafe somewhere in the harbour area. A good shot was the news-item that the fraternity of Palestine orange-growers has had the O.B.E. conferred upon it, for it is "Owing Bills Everywhere."

In his talk on "The German Counter Blockade," Mr. Waller Pick reviewed the German efforts in that direction, giving details of the methods employed and of their failure.

The evening's music included five songs of Yehuda Karni set to music by Gabriel Grad, and sung by Marcel Noe. As on previous occasions, Mr Noe tends to be a little over-sentimental where Jewish music is concerned. — S.
